

Janene White

Profile

M Com Industrial Psychology (RAU), Certificate Programme in Marketing Management (Wits Business School), Certificate Programme in Organisation Development (Sep Serfontein Consulting Group), CPP Practitioner (Magellan Consulting)

Janene holds a Masters in Industrial Psychology from RAU and has several accreditations in the assessment field. She has presented her research article at national level and in addition her paper was presented at international conference level. She is a published author in the South African Journal of Industrial Psychology. Her research has earned her award for Best Research Article.

She has 19 years experience in the financial and motor industries on aspects such as competence and ability assessment, leadership assessment and generalist human resource management. She has been an independent consultant since 2005/2006 and provides human resource consultancy services, psychometric assessment services at general, management and senior management levels as well as medico-legal assessments.

Key Competencies

Organisational assessments
Behaviour assessments
Assessment and development centres
Industrial psychological legal assessments

Affiliations and Certifications

Industrial Psychologist (PS 62219) (Health Professions Counsel of South Africa)
Myers & Briggs Type Indicator User (Jopie van Rooyen & Partners)
Occupational Personality Questionnaire User (SHL)
Certificate Programme in Organisational Development (Sep Serfontein Consulting Group)
Cognitive Process Profile Practitioner (Magellan Consulting)

Publications and papers presented

White, JC, Crafford, A & Schepers, JM (2001) The construction of a normative instrument for the measuring of moral reasoning. Journal of Industrial Psychology